TOWN OF SUFFOLK

Shands-Bradshaw People Issue Spicy Circular.

The Boykin-Jones Crowd Referred to as "Holders" - The Disgruntled's Primary Saturday - The Storm in Suffolk Severest Seen in 20 Years.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

Suffolk, Va., Aug. 17.—Some of the Bradshaw-Shands supporters are out with a spicy political circular, copies of which are being distributed among Isle of Wight voters. The document is signed "committee. It beseeches their friends to stay away from Saturday's primary and characterizes the other side as "holders."

The primary over there will be pulled off Saturday. The Boykin-Jones people think a good sized vote will be pulled. The Shands-Bradshaw adherents will keep hands-off. Neither the name of Mr. Shands nor Dr. Bradshaw will be printed on the primary ballot.

Dr. T. E. Baird, of Windsor, was in Suffolk to-day. He thinks it's a good day a large vote will be pulled. Dr. Baird was considering the House proposition himself, but now he has decided he doesn't care to oppose Mr. Jones.

I was told to-day that Mr. Jones was sick at Bacon's Castle, Surry county, where he is visiting.

WILL FIGHT IT OUT.

Dr. Bradshaw has stated his determination to fight it out. He considers himself fairly nominated. He and his friends feel confident of winning.

The most exciting political event seen in Suffolk for years is looked for next Thursday, when two delegations from Isle of Wight will be here ready to vote for their favorites. Two conventions and two candidates are not beyond the range of probabilities.

Mr. Shands said to-day that looking at it from his weakest standpoint, he ought to go to the district of Isle of Wight, which he says was for him overwhelmingly. Mr. Shands thinks he will be nominated. The other side is equally confident.

SCOTT'S NECK SAVED.

Despite the declaration of two juries that Will Scott was guilty of murder in the first degree he will not hang. County Judge W. J. Kelly today sentenced Scott to eighteen years in prison. That is the extreme limit for second degree murder.

Will Scott, a one-armed mulatto, followed Tom Jones into a bar-room March 28th last, and stabbed him to death while he held the club arm of Jones' neck. The case was heard by a coroner's jury, police judge and grand jury, by which a true bill was found. The first petty jury disagreed. The second brought a verdict of death, which was set aside. The third also said Scott should die.

Scott will be taken to the penitentiary as soon as the necessary papers are fixed and time has elapsed for a guard's arrival.

THE STORM.

This was the severest August storm old residents have seen for more than twenty years. Telegraph and telephone lines have been crippled. Many trees are prostrate, the electric lights are black and low grounds are flooded. Down at the wharf to-night some citizens were busy saving hogs and chickens from a watery grave. The roof of a three feet deep in the county road beyond the Main street bridge. But that is less than the depth of tide water in the road at Red's Ferry or the Church street bridge in Smithfield. At 7 o'clock this evening water washed over the box of a buggy in the road at Red's Ferry. The bridge at Smithfield was practically impassable at high water.

REVIVAL MEETINGS.

They are having several all-day revival meetings in Isle of Wight county. There are a series of meetings in progress at Woodland M. E. Church, of which Rev. J. A. Thomas, of Windsor, is pastor. Mr. A. A. Riddick, of Suffolk, has been assisting with the services.

Prepare the Future Against Attack.

We have escaped the dreaded enemy—a pestilence; yet now is the important period, here is where we may become careless, let the enemy slip, rather let us continue the same dosage of precaution. Remembering our last two donations from "the colonies": smallpox, yellow fever—let not some other kind of the "mother country"—bubonic plague, leprosy. A flat country is more easily assailed by disease germs than an elevated region under the same conditions of latitude. Under the same conditions of latitude, the cause of this is stagnation in the drainage of the soil. No stone must remain unturned which will aid the healthy flow. In the country about Norfolk and Portsmouth one only to notice the numberless creeks, bays and indentations of the Elizabeth river to get a clear idea of this stagnation. To the discredit of the inhabitants about these numerous creeks—the same are nothing more than open sewers—which condition should be remedied at once, if it required punishment to be inflicted upon the perpetrators in order to do so. A remedy that is the very best, a remedy that would redound forever after to the credit, thought, and intelligence of the people of Norfolk, Portsmouth, Berkley and surroundings, would be the filling of these creeks, out to the port warden's line, the entire length of the Elizabeth river. This may suggest to the mind a too gigantic and expensive scheme, and a too costly remedy, but the same has been done in the harbor of San Francisco, and why not here?

The expense of filling the creeks exclusive of the construction of the dams across their mouths, is sixteen cents per cubic yard of filling by the hydraulic dredge method—and, mark you, we are certain where the mud is. The dipper dredge and the scow method costs the Government twenty-five cents per cubic yard—and, mark you, the mud is usually carried out at night, and is (supposedly) dumped at sea. Sometimes, these scows contract a habit of letting their mud through before reaching the sea, and then this mud must be dredged out again at twenty-five per cubic yard.

If all these little creeks and bays were filled in, eventually we would have an entire river front from Hampton Roads to the canal locks, presenting a clean, grassy, "Ghent"-like appearance. No creek bottoms filled with rotten fish, crabs and other sea life, and besides—sewerage from the lazy and ignorant classes. Finally, the greatest benefit derived would be to increase the strength of the tides (the natural cleansers of our harbor) with at the same time, a disappearance of the trash-like little bays which retain the filth.

The Senatorial Contest.

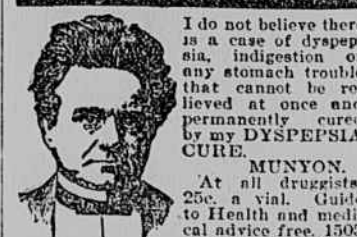

Suffolk, Va., Aug. 15, 1899.

Editor Virginian-Pilot.—The contest between Tyler, the people and honesty on one side and Martin's machine and questionable methods on the other side, is waxing warmer every day. It is a battle between liberty-loving citizens who are willing to trust the people and the office-holding class who believe might makes right, and that the dollar is more potent than manhood.

The sudden elevation of Martin, an entire stranger to the people, to the United States Senate, contrary to the wishes of the people, and over the head of Virginia's most popular citizen, Fitzhugh Lee, is a matter which every honest citizen regards as a blot upon the fair fame of our good old State. The methods used in that contest were mysterious and it is the current belief everywhere that Martin secured his election by the same means that Mark Hanna employed in securing his election to the Senate by the Ohio Legislature. Martin is not known to the masses of the people, and he should be relegated to that obscurity from which he so mysteriously sprang.

Who wants Martin for Senator? The machine, which has grown so corrupt as to be unbearable, is very active in promoting Martin's interests and are willing to enter into any dark plot to further their purpose. Is it not time for the people to take a hand in opposition and see that the honor and dignity of the State is redeemed. The people of Nansemond county should cut loose from the weaklings who run the machine and undertake to do the thing for the manhood of the community. Isle of Wight is stirred and the people are being heard from. They are determined to break the machine and let the voice of the people be heard. Nansemond should fall in line and strike a few blows at the little ring, composed of little men, who have dominated county politics so long. Governor Tyler may not be our ideal for Senator, but he is a plain, honest

FAIR PLAY.

Are these to be called for the people's good, or for party only? Will this mysterious power which has worked up such great strength in this State, defeating the will and demands of the people, knowing no law except of its own creation, be there with its invisible power, to nominate men of its bidding, regardless of the people's demands? Look! Be careful how you do this! The people are wide awake. One more feather will break the camel's back. Take heed! The Democratic party has had one sad lesson taught them here. The good people of Norfolk are ready to teach another lesson to this same sad power. If this mysterious power shows its hand again, it may nominate but the people will call and elect men of the people, who will obey the people. A word to the wise is sufficient.

JEFFERSONIAN DEMOCRAT.

The Machine in Albemarle.

Charlottesville, Va., Aug. 15.

Editor Virginian-Pilot:

The mass-meeting held in this Senator Martin's home county, last Saturday, for the purpose of choosing delegates to the county convention, were very poorly attended. The masses of the party could not be induced to take any interest in the matter, and seemed not to care much about the Senatorial question. The politicians were very much aroused in the city of Charlottesville. They urged the people to turn out and show their appreciation of the brilliant junior Senator from Scottsville. They told the people that there was one Tyler man in the city, and that he was after them, but the dear people would not turn out and show their appreciation.

The registered Democratic vote of the city is something over 800, yet only about 50 voters attended the mass-meeting. At the courthouse, on Monday, where there is a registered Democratic vote of over 300, and where the sub-bosses are "monarchs of all they survey," only 7 voters attended the mass-meeting, but they were very enthusiastic and unanimously in favor of the re-election of Senator Martin. Probably the largest meeting in the county was at Ivy precinct, where a resolution was passed endorsing the movement looking to the nomination of Senator by a direct vote of the people, and instructing the delegates to vote only for candidates for the legislature who would vote for such a law. The delegates from that precinct were not admitted to the convention, although there was no contesting delegation from the precinct. The convention met on Monday, the 14th instant, at the county courthouse and nominated two candidates for the legislature who had never publicly announced their candidacy to the people. The convention simply endorsed Senator Martin for re-election, but did not instruct the nominees to vote for him. Evidently it is the sentiment of the people (politicians of this county) that candidates for the legislature should not be instructed as to how they shall vote on any measures, and that the election of United States Senators is a question with which the people should not meddle.

Yours respectfully, AGITATOR.

The Deputy Clerk.

Editor Virginian-Pilot:—I see in this morning's paper that Mr. Camp offered a resolution that the Mayor be authorized to appoint a deputy clerk, at a salary of $60 per month, as the duties of the present clerk were so onerous. Now I would suggest that if the present clerk thinks as Mr. Camp does, please let him resign the position and see how many applications there would be for the place; for I, with many old citizens, will remember when the Mayor had to do what a police justice is now getting $2,500 a year to do, and was not allowed a clerk either, and now Mr. Camp thinks one is not enough for our present Mayor. His ideas must be to make a position for some politician.

Pensacola, Fla., Aug. 15.—The steamer Onoda arrived here yesterday afternoon with the crews of three Norwegian vessels which were wrecked in the Caribbean hurricane. There were about 45 men. To Investigate Bubonic Plague.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

Washington, Aug. 17.—Surgeon Fairfax Irwin, of the Marine Hospital Service, now in Europe, has been ordered by Surgeon General Wyman to proceed to Lisbon and make a report on the situation regarding the bubonic plague, which has made its appearance in Portugal. Assistant Surgeon Hier, at Naples, is watching matters in that city.

Mrs. GEORGE FOSTER. Doctor, what can I do for belching of wind?

DOCTOR II. Belching of wind is due to fermentation of the food in the stomach. This is usually caused by the inability of the stomach to digest the foods containing starch. Avoid all intoxicants, fresh bread, rolls, rice, oatmeal, potatoes, peas, beans, corn, cake, pastry, pie, pork, sausage and rich foods. After meals take a Ripans Tablet. One will give you prompt relief, and their continued use for a week or two will cure the trouble if you abandon the foods that principally cause it.

A new style packet containing this medicine is a paper version (without glass) now for sale at some drug stores. The old style packet is still in use for the poor and the economical.
